FEATURE SCREENWRITING:

THE GARDEN OF BROOKLYN (2022 - present)

Optioned by H's Films, producers of television series SHADES OF BLUE (NBC, Jennifer Lopez & Ray Liotta) and EYEWITNESS (USA Network); and feature films FROM PARIS WITH LOVE (John Travolta) and 3 DAYS TO KILL (Kevin Costner & Hailee Steinfeld). Currently in rewrites.

Comedy about a Brooklyn couple who discover the Garden of Eden in their own backyard and see a chance to save their struggling restaurant and marriage.

LA AFORTUNADA/THE LUCKY ONE (2014-2018)

Developed as independent feature.

Character-driven drama about an adopted Mexican-American woman discovering the toxic effects of the maquiladoras (sweatshops) in northern Mexico, as she discovers her own troubled family history.

Development activities included:

- Raised over $35,000 in grants, including City of Austin Cultural Arts grant.
- Filmed “proof-of-concept” scene from script on-location in Umland, Texas.
- Staged readings of screenplay. Actors auditioned and rehearsed for major roles. Performed before two separate audiences, with question-and-answer afterwards.
- Kickstarter campaign to raise $50,000, in conjunction with "Production for Use".
- Consulted experts in immigration and fertility law.
- Location scouting in Acuna, Mexico, and Texas.
- Filled crew positions, including Director, Producer, 1st Assistant Director, Sound Designer, Music Supervisor.
- Co-taught course, "RTF 343 Developing the Indie Feature" with Andrew Garrison

TRAFIQ (2012)

Hired by H's Films for production rewrite

Production Company: Gary Sanchez Productions (SUCCESSION, STEP-BROTHERS, ANCHORMAN)

Studio: Paramount Studios

Attachments: Will Ferrell, actor; Adam McKay, director (DON'T LOOK UP, THE BIG SHORT)

Production rewrite of comedy taking place in the Green Zone during the early days of the Iraq war. Despite having absolutely no training, Brad Lowery is appointed "traffic czar" of Baghdad. His assignment: to make the traffic flow from one end of the ancient city to the other. But to do so, he must overcome the ineptness of the American provisional government, bring electricity to the battle-scarred city – and battle his own feelings for a beautiful Iraqi taxi-driver.

TOUCH (2008)

Supernatural thriller about a mother and daughter, separated by death, but joined across time by their gifts of premonition. From the past and present, they both try to solve the mystery of the mother's murder.

TOUCH is represented by the management company Madhatter Films.

DOUBLE-PLAY (2003)

Optioned by Stratus Films (LAWS OF ATTRACTION, PRIME)

Studio: Universal Studios

Attachments: Dean Parisot, director (GALAXY QUEST, FRANKIE & GRACE)

A complex con-within-a-con story, centered around a young grifter inadvertently caught in the massive sting of a federal agent.

END-GAME (2001)

Purchased by Mandalay Pictures (I KNOW WHAT YOU DID LAST SUMMER, THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT)

Studio: Paramount Studios

Attachments: Sean Connery, actor; Peter Guber, producer (RAIN MAN, BATMAN, MIDNIGHT EXPRESS)

Political thriller about the last of the cold-war warriors, still plying his trade in Eastern Europe, uncovering a conspiracy within the new CIA with the help of a young agent.

BLACK SEPTEMBER (1998)

Optioned by Sony Studios

Attachments: John Woo, director (FACE-OFF, MISSION IMPOSSIBLE II); Wesley Snipes, actor.

Revenge-thriller based loosely on the Munich Olympic killings, following the tragic aftermath of a terrorist attack.

SHADES OF GREY (1997)

Optioned by 20th Century Fox Studios

Attachments: Denzel Washington, actor & producer

A dissolute Brooklyn prosecutor faces his own personal and professional demise, as he partners-up with a past-his-prime Fed to take on the Russian mob.

STEALING HEARTS (1995)

Optioned by Warner Brothers Studios

Attachments: Goldie Hawn, actor; Arnold Kopelson, producer (PLATOON, THE FUGITIVE, SE7EN)

Road movie about two mismatched modern-day Robin Hoods, robbing savings-and-loans in the San Joaquin Valley, and falling in love as they redistribute wealth to desperate farmers.

TELEVISION WRITING:

PARADISE PAWN (2019 & 2015)

Production Companies: Leftfield Entertainment (2019) & Gil Junger Productions (2015)

Attachment: Gil Junger, director (10 THINGS I HATE ABOUT YOU, BLACK KNIGHT)

Drama pilot set in a Boston pawnshop, where two worlds meet across bulletproof glass: the Goodman family, third generation pawnbrokers, and their eclectic mix of customers, ranging from socialites to junkies, and everything in-between.

Originally developed with Gil Junger Productions in 2015. In 2019, revised for "Leftfield Entertainment", preeminent producer of reality television (PAWN STARS, REAL HOUSEWIVES OF NEW JERSEY), as tie-in to Leftfield's existing pawnshop reality shows.

DEBT (2010)

Hired by H's Films

Production Company: Gary Sanchez Productions

Studio: Lionsgate (MAD MEN, WEEDS)

Attachments: Will Ferrell, actor; Adam McKay, director

Comedy pilot about the owner of a debt-collection agency in the San Fernando Valley, who must deal with his troublesome employees and clients, as he tries to keep himself out of debt

GOOD PROVIDERS (2007)

Production Company: Happy Madison Productions (ANGER MANAGEMENT, PIXELS, CLICK)

Studio: Sony Television

Attachments: Adam Sandler, producer

Pitch for television series about a suburban husband who opens a high-end escort service in the Texas suburbs, while trying to keep his wife and family unawares.

THE KILLER ELITE (2005)

Optioned by HBO

Pilot for six-part miniseries based on the award-winning book "Generation Kill" by Rolling Stone journalist Evan Wright. The series follows the members of the first Marine squad to cross into Kuwait, as they make their way to Baghdad during the Iraqi war, while crosscutting to flashbacks of the lives they left in America.

Aired on HBO as "Generation Kill", with David Simon (THE WIRE, TREME, THE DEUCE) as writer/producer.

THE SAMURAI (2003)

Optioned by NBC Studios

Attachments: Jeff Goldblum, actor

Drama pilot about an unemployed businessman, hired by the U.S. government as a hitman – while trying to keep his troubled family intact and unawares.

THREE CARD MONTE (2002)

Optioned by Icon Productions

Network: UPN

Attachments: Mel Gibson, producer

Drama pilot about a group of semi-reformed con men, selling their services to the powerless and victimized who are looking to get some off-the-books justice.

PROJECTS IN DEVELOPMENT:

FATHER OF THE MAN

Comedy feature about a young, neurotic father-to be -- estranged from his own father -- who gets the chance to go back in time, take his father's place, and correct the mistakes of his own upbringing. "Eternal Sunshine of the Countless Mind" meets "Poor Things".

AMERICAN LEAR

Feature adaptation of Shakespeare's "King Lear", following the imagined journey of ex-president Ronald Reagan after his diagnosis of Alzheimer's. The story follows Reagan as he escapes his ranch in Santa Barbara and recreates Lear's storm-rattled journey through 1990's Los Angeles. Brought low by his illness and forced to confront the human consequences of his presidential policies, Reagan ultimately finds common ground in common suffering. AMERICAN LEAR provides a vision of a more compassionate America, an alternative path for the country had Reagan attained Lear's hard-earned wisdom before his death.
